Anthem Texts

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross ~ Isaac Watts

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ, my God! All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to his blood. See, from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down! Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown? Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were a present far too small; Love, so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all! Amen!

Crown Him The Lord Of Life! ~ John of Damascus (ca. 675-749)

Crown Him the Lord of life! Christ triumphed over the grave And rose victorious for those He came to save, crown Him the Lord of life! The day of resurrection! Earth, tell it out abroad; The Passover of gladness, The Passover of God. From death to life eternal, from sin's dominion free, our Christ has brought us over with hymns of victory. Now let the heavens be joyful! Let earth its song begin, the word resound in triumph, and all that is therein! Let all things seen and unseen their notes of gladness blend, for Christ the Lord has risen, Our joy that has no end.

Crown Him the Lord of life! Then praise we God the Father, and praise we Christ the Son, The Holy Spirit, Eternal Three in One. Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne, and honor, power and glory Ascribe to God alone! Crown the risen King the Lord of life!
